

Capital Markets Day – Meeting the Future with NIBE

NIBE Industrier AB extends an invitation to attend the company's Capital Markets Day on Friday 15 November 2013 in conjunction with the publication of NIBE's Q3 interim report.

This year's Capital Markets Day will be held in Kasendorf, Germany, where NIBE's German subsidiary AIT Group (formerly Alpha-InnoTec) has its headquarters and production facilities.

During the day there will be an opportunity to acquaint yourself more closely with the future of NIBE, meet members of the new management team and learn more about our products and the potential for growth that they represent.

Log on to www.nibe.com/cmd2013 to access the invitation.
