This mandate is restricted to a maximum of 10% of the number of shares issued at the time of the AGM.

Guidelines on remuneration and other terms of employment for senior executives

The AGM approved the Board's proposal that, in addition to generally accepted employment terms, executive employees shall as incentive be able to have a variable salary part which is paid if the goals that have been set up are met. The variable salary shall be limited to four monthly salaries. In addition thereto, an extra monthly salary may be paid as remuneration provided that the executive employee uses this extra remuneration and an additional monthly salary of his/hers variable remuneration for acquisition of NIBE-shares. A condition for the extra remuneration is that the executive employee keeps the annually acquired NIBE-shares for at least three years. Normally, the executive employee's acquisition of NIBE-shares will be made once a year in February/March and then with application of the insider rules in force. The managing director shall not be included in any incentive program.

The board of directors may deviate from the guidelines if there are particular grounds therefor in an individual case.
